Dear [Redacted]

Please accept my personal congratulations and those of your colleagues and friends in FBIS as you end an outstanding career with FBIS and the Vienna Bureau.

Having joined FBIS in Vienna in 1958 when the bureau was still in its infancy, you must take a great deal of pride as you look back over your many accomplishments in a most productive career of more than 30 years, many of them as FBIS' only monitor of Polish press in the field. The excellence of your translations and the breadth and depth of your substantive knowledge of Polish affairs are known to all of those in FBIS who have served with you over the years and are appreciated by the numerous FBIS consumers who have benefited from your labors.

Throughout your long career, [Redacted] you have earned the deep respect of your many friends and colleagues in FBIS not only because of your skills and talents as a monitor, but also because you have remained always a gentleman of the highest order. I often recall fondly my direct association with you during those interesting years in Eastern Europe 1968-71. I wish you the very best good fortune and good health in your future endeavors. Sto lat i Dziekuje!

Sincerely,
